

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Senior Pastor, Rev. Noah Kegley, to be Installed at Immanuel Lutheran in Batavia

Batavia, IL 10/12/2023 - Immanuel Lutheran Church and School, Batavia announces the installation of Rev. Noah Kegley as its new Senior Pastor on October 29 at 4 pm. The service of Installation will take place in the Family Life Center, to be followed by a reception in the Fellowship Hall. A warm invitation is extended to all members of the community to be part of this significant day in Immanuel's ministry to the region.

The President of the Northern Illinois District of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, Rev. Dr. Allan Buss, will give the message and perform the rite of Installation. Local LCMS Pastors and the musicians of Immanuel will also participate.

Pastor Noah, accompanied by his wife Monica and their children comes to Immanuel after service to St. Paul Lutheran in Mountain View, California. A native of Wisconsin, Rev. Kegley received his pre-seminary education at Concordia University, Mequon, WI, and completed his study for the ministry at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. During his seminary training, he served as a vicar at St. Paul Lutheran in Boca Raton, FL. Ordained in 2018, he was Associate Pastor at St. Paul Lutheran in West Allis, WI, before assuming pastoral leadership in Mountain View.

As Senior Pastor, Rev. Kegley will guide Immanuel as both its spiritual and administrative leader. He becomes the 17th Pastor in Immanuel's 141-year history.

For more information, please contact:

Church Office, Immanuel Lutheran Church & School
630 879-7163, church@immanuelbatavia.org, www.immanuelbatavia.org